AmeriCorps Opportunities

Some Benefits You Feel, Other Benefits are Real. Perhaps the first and biggest benefit people get from volunteering is the satisfaction of incorporating service into their lives and making a difference in their community and country. The intangible benefits alone—such as pride, satisfaction and accomplishment—are worthwhile reasons to serve.

But there are other benefits as well—tangible benefits such as awards, job and education certifications, and more.

- Read what others have said about their service
Benefits vary by program. To learn about the specifics, please visit one of our program sites. AmeriCorps: Through its programs, AmeriCorps provides opportunities for Americans to make an ongoing, intensive commitment to service.
- AmeriCorps State and National: AmeriCorps*State and National offers a broad range of service programs that engage thousands of Americans in intensive service to meet critical community needs.
- AmeriCorps VISTA: AmeriCorps*VISTA provides members full-time to community organizations and public agencies to create and expand programs that build capacity and ultimately bring low-income individuals and communities out of poverty.
- AmeriCorps NCCC: The AmeriCorps*National Civilian Community Corps is a full-time residential program for men and women aged 18-24 that strengthens communities while developing leaders through direct, team-based national and community service.
- Learn and Serve America: Learn and Serve America provides grants to schools, higher education institutions and community-based organizations that engage students, their teachers and others in service to meet community needs.

Broad Prize for Urban Education Scholarship - Also found in Connect EDU

The annual $1 million Broad Prize for Urban Education was created by The Eli and Edythe Broad Foundation to honor school districts that demonstrate the greatest overall performance and improvement in student achievement, while at the same time reducing achievement gaps across ethnic groups and between low-income and non-low-income students.

Although The Broad Prize recognizes urban school district efforts on the whole, the beneficiaries of The Broad Prize funds are the students themselves. The Broad Prize winning district receives $550,000 million in college scholarships for graduating high school seniors, and the finalist districts each receive $150,000 in college scholarships.

Graduating seniors from Broad Prize winning and finalist districts are eligible for two- or four-year scholarships, depending on the type of higher education institution they choose to attend.

Eligibility:

To be eligible for The Broad Prize for Urban Education, applicants must:

- Graduate from Miami-Dade County Public Schools, Florida School District in 2013.
- Have a minimum weighted cumulative grade point average of 2.75 in their senior year.
- Enroll full-time at an accredited college, university, community or junior college or vocational/technical program in the fall of 2013 for the entire upcoming academic year.
- Show academic improvement from the ninth grade to the 11th grade as measured by an improved grade point average.
- Demonstrate financial need.
- Be a U.S. Citizen, U.S. Permanent Resident in possession of a valid Alien Registration Receipt Card (INS Form I-551, commonly known as a "green card"), or a refugee with a Departure Record (Form I-94) showing one of the following designations:
